

Hon. Samuel M. Fox,

Dear Sir,

I was very sorry and surprised to receive your communication yesterday supposing when I last saw you, as you did not forbid me leaving that evening at 8 o'clock, instead of ten, your permission was granted.

I am very sorry if by so doing, I have violated the rules, and hope you will accept my apology, and decide to overlook matters.

265 1/2

L. S. Munt

March 1. 87.

Adele. R. Robinson

Apology.

March 1. 1887

[Abstract:] Apology.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Dear Sir,

I was very sorry and surprised to receive your communication yesterday supposing when I last saw you, as you did not forbid me leaving that evening at 8 O'clock, instead of ten, your permission was granted.

I am very sorry if by so doing, I have violated the rules, and hope you will accept my apology, and decide to overlook matter

[Page missing from original file.]